Traffic Stop Ends in Arrest

Shortly after 1 p.m., Tuesday, August 13, a Wheeling Police officer patrolling the East Wheeling area conducted a traffic stop in the 1200 block of Eoff Street.

When speaking to the occupants, the officer smelled an aroma of marijuana which prompted a search of the vehicle.

Discovered inside was a large amount of cocaine and crack cocaine, more than $2,000 in cash, a firearm and instruments used to weigh narcotics.

David Anthony Richardson-Young, 32 of Martinsburg, W.Va. is charged with felon in possession of a firearm and possession with intent to deliver. He was arrested, arraigned by an Ohio County Magistrate and taken to the Northern Regional Jail.
