WPD Arrest One Person for Entering Unlocked Cars

Wheeling Police arrested one person Sunday morning after receiving calls of a man trying to enter vehicles in the 2700 block of Eoff Street in Center Wheeling.

Officers initially received a call around 3:20 a.m., but were unable to locate the suspect. After receiving more information and additional calls, they arrested Jared O. Mutz, 23 of Wheeling.

Mutz was arrested and is charged with two counts of entering without breaking into automobiles. He was taken to the Northern Regional Jail by WPD.

The Wheeling Police Department wants to remind the public to call police if you see suspicious activity and to lock your vehicles and homes at all times.
