WPD Arrest Man Involved in Multiple Thefts

A Wheeling man is facing criminal charges after Wheeling Police believe he was involved in multiple thefts in the city over the weekend.

Jarred O. Mutz, 24 of Wheeling was charged with one count of grand larceny Monday.

Wheeling Police were sent the National Road Hampton Inn this morning for a report of car being entered overnight. Surveillance video shows the suspect attempting to enter several vehicles that appeared to have been un-locked.

Additionally, police believe Mutz entered and stole items from vehicles on Ivy Avenue and Leonard Avenue on Sunday. They also believe he entered another vehicle and stole a bicycle on Leatherwood Lane early this morning.

Mutz was arraigned by an Ohio County Magistrate where bond was set at $3,000 and was transported to the Northern Regional Jail.
