Commercial Burglary Investigations Update

Since March 2024 the Criminal Investigation Unit has been investigating several commercial burglaries that have occurred in the Town of Middletown during the overnight hours. The suspect would damage doors or windows to gain entry to the businesses before fleeing on foot. Through a joint investigation with the Delaware State Police, the suspect was identified as 42-year-old Keeno Exum from Elkton, Maryland. On December 15, DSP Troopers attempted to stop a vehicle Exum was operating in Wilmington and he fled. He was later taken into custody in Elkton, MD after Elkton PD assisted with a search warrant of a residence. Exum was extradited back to Delaware on December 16th and he was issued the below charges for the Middletown PD burglary investigations and received $82,100 cash bail. Exum was also charged with additional burglaries throughout the state by surrounding agencies. Exum was transported to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution after failing to post bond.
