Jeff and Jennifer are going to sit down in the near future and start looking at the long range, where they want to end up in five years' time. They have been so focused on the short range lately, but now they can start looking toward the future of BCASD. Discussion followed.

Commissioner Korn said we have done a great job being frugal and he would like to see that continue. He wants to see the reserves get built up and be able to have the finances to hire new employees when needed. Commissioner Domke talked about savings also for the anticipation of needing to replace big equipment, and how long the district needs to be savings to replace some of those things when the time comes.
