Jango Goes Home

We are so proud to announce that after 4 years Jango finally picked his family. Jango came to us from Columbia County Animal Control, as an owner surrender when he was 7 months old. He didn't know life existed outside of being tied to a porch with a chain. His life at the shelter, quickly became amazing for him. He had some behavioral issues we worked him through and over time he became the hit of the kennel. Our volunteers enjoyed his walks and playing with other dogs. Jango did several meet and greets while he was here, he just never chose that one family until he chose the last one. We get lots of reports of what a good boy he is and how he is contiuning his training in his new home. Thank you to all our supporters for allowing us to give Jango a great life.

Happy Tails Talia

Talia's journey is a testament to the resilience of animals and the unwavering commitment of the Columbia Humane Society to find the perfect match for every pet. After spending six months with us, this sweet cat, who needed a dog-free environment and the comfort of being the only feline in her home, ultimately chose her forever family. Her story exemplifies the joy and fulfillment that comes from adopting a pet in need, highlighting the impact of our no-kill philosophy and our dedication to animal well-being. As we celebrate Talia's new beginning, we invite you to reflect on your own potential to provide a loving home for animals like her, fostering a sense of community responsibility towards those in need. Together, we can create a brighter future for pets requiring special care, and we encourage you to consider the joy of thoughtful pet ownership. Join us in supporting the Columbia Humane Society's mission through volunteering or donations, ensuring that we can continue to provide love and care for adoptable animals like Talia.
