Old Business Discussion Items

- Response Time Reporting Update

Jessica Kosydar to meet with Scappoose to review image trends. To be divided by response groups.

- Level Zero Report

Discussion on how to track. Difficult for CCOM due to complexities. May not show what the goal is. Question on how to get data to see trends and when our systems are the most taxed. Call volume not an accurate representation. Eric Smythe suggests meeting with Tim Hennigan. Acuity report may be a better fit or Time on Task. Jessica Kosydar to meet with Tim Hennigan.

- Mutual Aid Report

Eric Smythe expressed concerns over how to track, especially if tracked differently in Image Trends and errors in charting. Josh Marks says it has been learned that agencies have not been tracking correctly but wants to know why it would be brought to this group if calls are being met. Jessica Kosydar responds to bring the group to a common language and to establish who is making the calls. Corey Padron speaks up to say it helps to show where the load is to help with grants. It is not punitive. Josh Marks comments the CAD data could be use
