Good morning. I recognize this comment is being received after the public comment period, but I will attend the meeting on March 3 to make the following public comment:

My name is Kristen Patterson, Executive Director of New Morning Youth & Family Services. New Morning operates the children's emergency shelter at 211 New Morning Court, the only property sharing the access roadway with the site at 201 New Morning Court.

After reviewing the environmental impact study, we respectfully note that potential impacts to the emergency shelter do not appear to be considered.

We respectfully request consideration to ensure the environmental review is complete. We welcome collaboration to help ensure the safety and well-being of the children in our care.

Thank you.

Kristen Patterson
