Mayor Logan presented Community Service Award certificates and lapel pins to the following citizens: Roy and Sandy Dodge; Donna Ruttan, and Barbara Anderson.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN REVIEW

Community Development Director Travis Goddard explained the development of a comprehensive plan and introduced the draft Othello Comprehensive Plan. He asked Council to review the plan and advise him when he can start the environment review and forward the plan to State Department of Commerce and other agencies for review. Modifications will be completed and then Council will be asked to approve it.

Mary Harvey, teacher from the Othello High School teaching civics explained that her class was asked to do a civic action project and some of her students were attending the workshop meeting tonight.

Mayor Logan made the following announcements:

- Shop with a Cop is scheduled for Saturday, December 12th.
- Donations of youth hats, gloves and scarves are being collected at City Hall to be included in the Christmas Basket program.
- Councilmember Johnson stated they are taking donations of food for the Christmas baskets at the Fire Department and Johnsons Glass.
- Mayor Logan advised that AWC has offered six $1,000 scholarships for high school graduates. Our scholarship committee will need to review all of the AWC scholarships and forward one for final selection by AWC.
