Mayor Logan recognizes Commissioner Roger Hartwig in the audience and asks if he would like to address Council or listen to what staff has to present. Hartwig says he would like to hear what staff has to present and he would like to present some numbers afterwards.

Mayor Logan gives Council an update of the recent negotiations between City staff and Adams County. Currently the City pays $92,000 for prosecuting and court services. The City offered an additional $20,000. The County is asking for an additional $92,000 along with a 4% annual increase.
