VII. Describe in detail the difficulty and unreasonable hardship asserted to be in the way of carrying out the strict letter; of the zoning ordinance:

The hardship arises from the inability to make reasonable use of the property given its unique size, location, and physical characteristics. At 1.5 acres at the end of a quiet dead-end street, the property offers separation and buffering uncommon in the area. However, current restrictions limit its use to a single-family residence, preventing the property from being utilized in a manner consistent with its attributes and potential, despite its suitability to accommodate a low-impact, well-managed Airbnb (short-term rental) without disturbing neighbors. The hardship results directly from applying a uniform restriction to a property that presents exceptional conditions.

Approval of this variance would allow the reasonable use of a uniquely situated property while providing benefits to the City of Derby. Derby currently lacks Airbnb accommodations, meaning visitors and business representatives often stay in neighboring towns. This property could fill that gap, offering short-term lodging that supports tourism and business travel, enhances Derby’s visibility, and increases patronage to local establishments.

VIII. What circumstances concerning this property are peculiar to it and not applicable to the area as a whole? Explain:

The property at 80 Stelmack Road presents circumstances that are unique within the R-3 District. Its size — 1.5 acres — combined with its location at the end of a quiet dead-end street with only three neighboring homes, provides a level of separation, privacy, and natural buffering that is not found in the surrounding area. These characteristics create a setting distinctly different from typical residential lots in the district, enabling uses that would otherwise be impractical. The configuration of the lot allows for safe, unobtrusive off-street parking and guest accommodations without disrupting the neighborhood. Such attributes create a condition of peculiarity that distinguishes this property and justifies consideration for a variance to permit a low-impact Airbnb use.

- IX. Would the requested variance be subject to appropriate conditions and safe guard?
Yes. The variance can be granted with reasonable conditions, including limits on guest occupancy, parking, signage, and compliance with all safety and health regulations.
- X. Would the requested variance be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the Ordinance? Explain: Yes. The variance supports the ordinance's purpose by enabling a use that is consistent with the property's scale, location, and residential context, while protecting neighborhood integrity and safety.

XI If the requested variance is a use variance, answer each of the following:

- 1. Do the zoning regulations allow no reasonable use of the property in question for reasons peculiar to the property and not applicable to the area as a whole? Explain? Yes. The property's size, location at the end of a quiet street, and natural buffering make it uniquely suited for an Airbnb (short-term-rental). Current zoning restricts such use, preventing a reasonable, low-impact use consistent with the property's character.
- 2. Is the use proposed the minimum variance necessary in order to allow a reasonable use of the property? Explain: Yes. The variance requested is the minimum necessary to allow reasonable use of the property as an Airbnb (short-term rental), providing a viable option consistent with the property's size, location, and character.
- 3. Will the use impair the essential character of the area or the objectives of the comprehensive plan of the City? Explain: No. The use as an Airbnb (short-term rental) preserves the residential character of the area while supporting the City's objective of sustainable, low-impact tourism.
- 4. If any attempts have been made to sell the property for use in accordance with the purposes for which it is zoned supply the following information: N/A
 - a. Period(s) in which placed on market and agent(s) in each period: N/A
 - b. Period(s) listed with Real Estate Board: N/A
