Planning Staff:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

2017-2018 Annual Report. Commissioner Monroe motioned for acceptance and forwarding to City Council along with a letter commending staff for their work. Seconded by Councilwoman Scatterday. All in favor.

NEW BUSINESS:

Site Plan Review – House of the Carpenter - 200 South Front Street

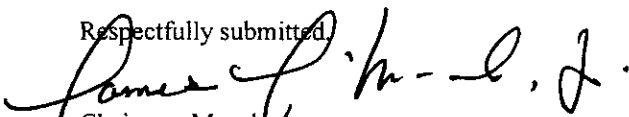

Adam Mull, architect for the project presented the updated final site plan. Mr. Mull reviewed the changes to the plan since the July 9, 2018 meeting, which included the addition of a matching cupola, windows, EIFS, concrete masonry, and other architectural details. The updated plans also corrected prior omissions such as landscaping details, and removal of nonexistent items. No changes were made to the site.

In action on the matter, Commissioner Monroe motioned for approval contingent on a parking variance and a stipulation that should a new owner of 300 South Front Street request a buffer, one will be installed. Seconded by Commissioner Wright. All were in favor.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 5:17 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Chairman Mauck
